

Celebrate Christmas on the slopes with Scott Dunn 8 nights for 7 for Christmas 2011

Luxury ski specialist, Scott Dunn, is offering guests a very special present this Christmas – a complimentary night for all Christmas week departures in all of its luxury chalets in Val d'Isère, Courchevel 1850, St Anton and Zermatt.

As Christmas falls on a Sunday, guests staying in any Scott Dunn chalet will receive eight nights for seven, departing 18 December – so all the family can enjoy a bonus day on the slopes and a guaranteed white Christmas, with prices frozen from last season.

After 25 years of evolution, Scott Dunn has defined the luxury chalet experience. The epitome of Alpine luxury, Scott Dunn's chalet portfolio includes 22 Original, Premier and Flagship chalets, most with spectacular private pools and wellness areas.

Guests will experience sublime gourmet dining prepared by experienced private chefs, Laurent-Perrier on ice and an in-resort driver service to whisk them from chalet to slope. For guests staying in Val d'Isère Scott Dunn children's club offers experienced childcare from just 4 months old and a private nanny service available in Val d'Isère, Courchevel 1850, St Anton and Zermatt.

Andrew Dunn, founder and owner of Scott Dunn commented, "The 2011/12 season is a very special celebration for Scott Dunn as we reach our 25th Anniversary milestone. Nearly a quarter of a century ago we reinvented European ski chalet holidays as they are known today. We pioneered touches such as our signature 'tea in bed' and made sure that our guests were looked after in an exemplary fashion working with the guiding Scott Dunn principal that we still hold true today that 'nothing is too much trouble'.
